

About the Survey

The Cornell Class of 2010 Senior Survey asks graduating seniors to evaluate Cornell and about what they learned, their experiences as a student, and their plans for the future.

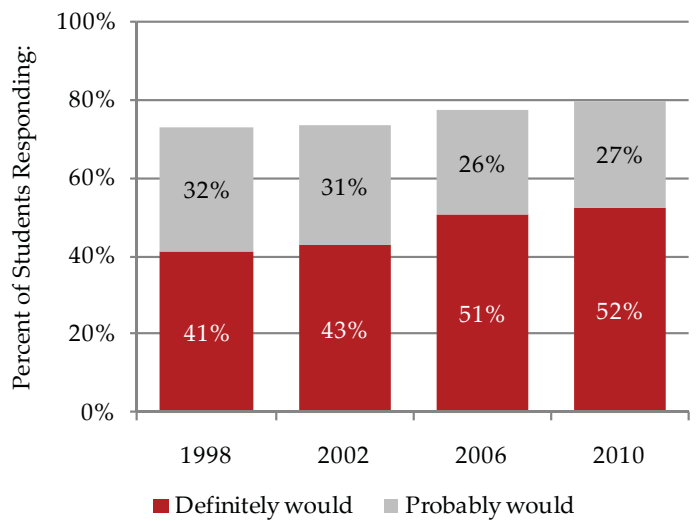

The survey was administered via the web between March 30 and May 4. Of the 3,161 students invited to complete the survey, a total of 1,579 students responded, yielding a response rate of 50%.

Future Plans and Evaluation of Overall Experience

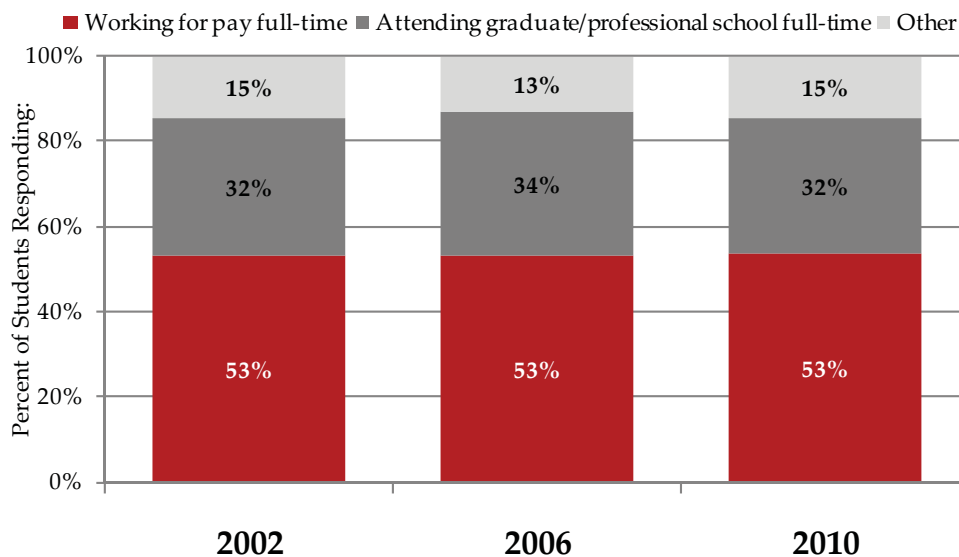

Overall, how satisfied have you been with your undergraduate education?

Would you encourage a high school senior who resembles you when you were a high school senior (same background, ability, interests, and temperament) to attend your college?

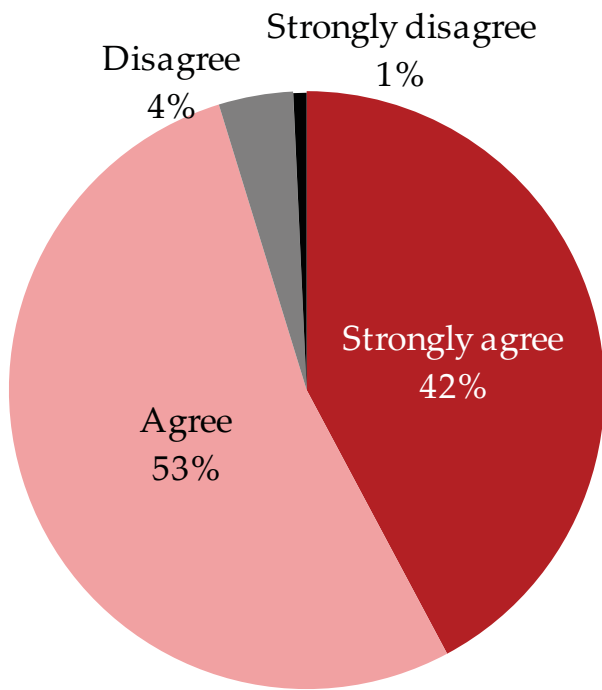

What do you expect to be doing this Fall?

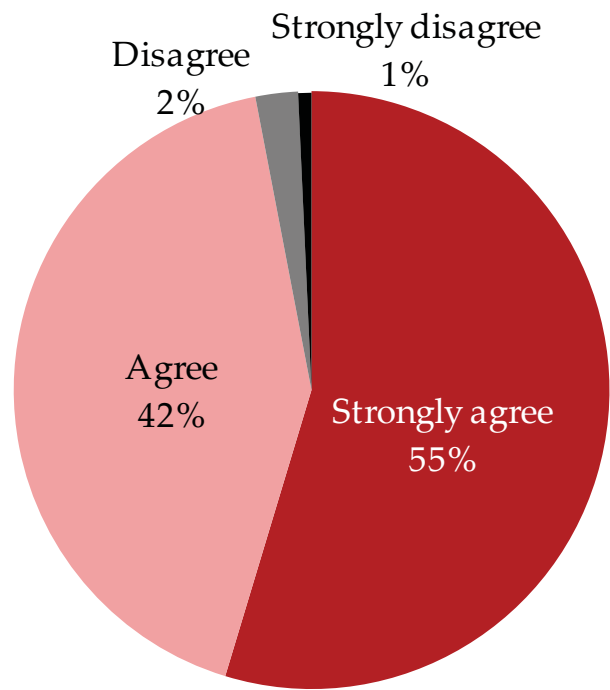

Faculty and Sense of Balance

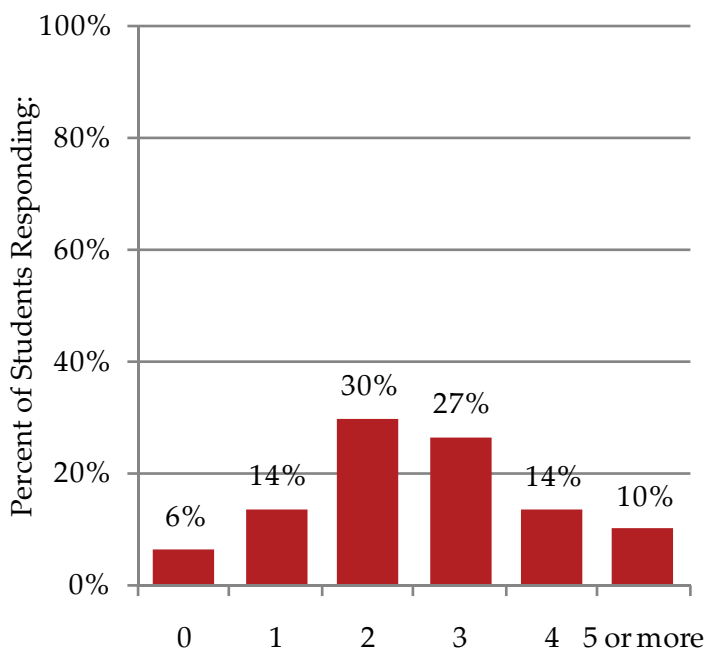

Faculty treat me fairly

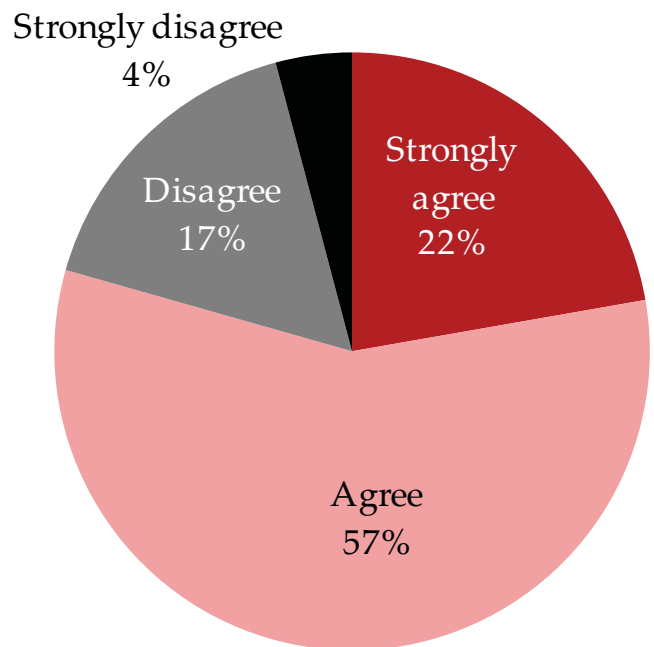

Faculty are willing to talk with me individually

How many faculty members know you well enough to provide a recommendation for a job or for advanced degree work?

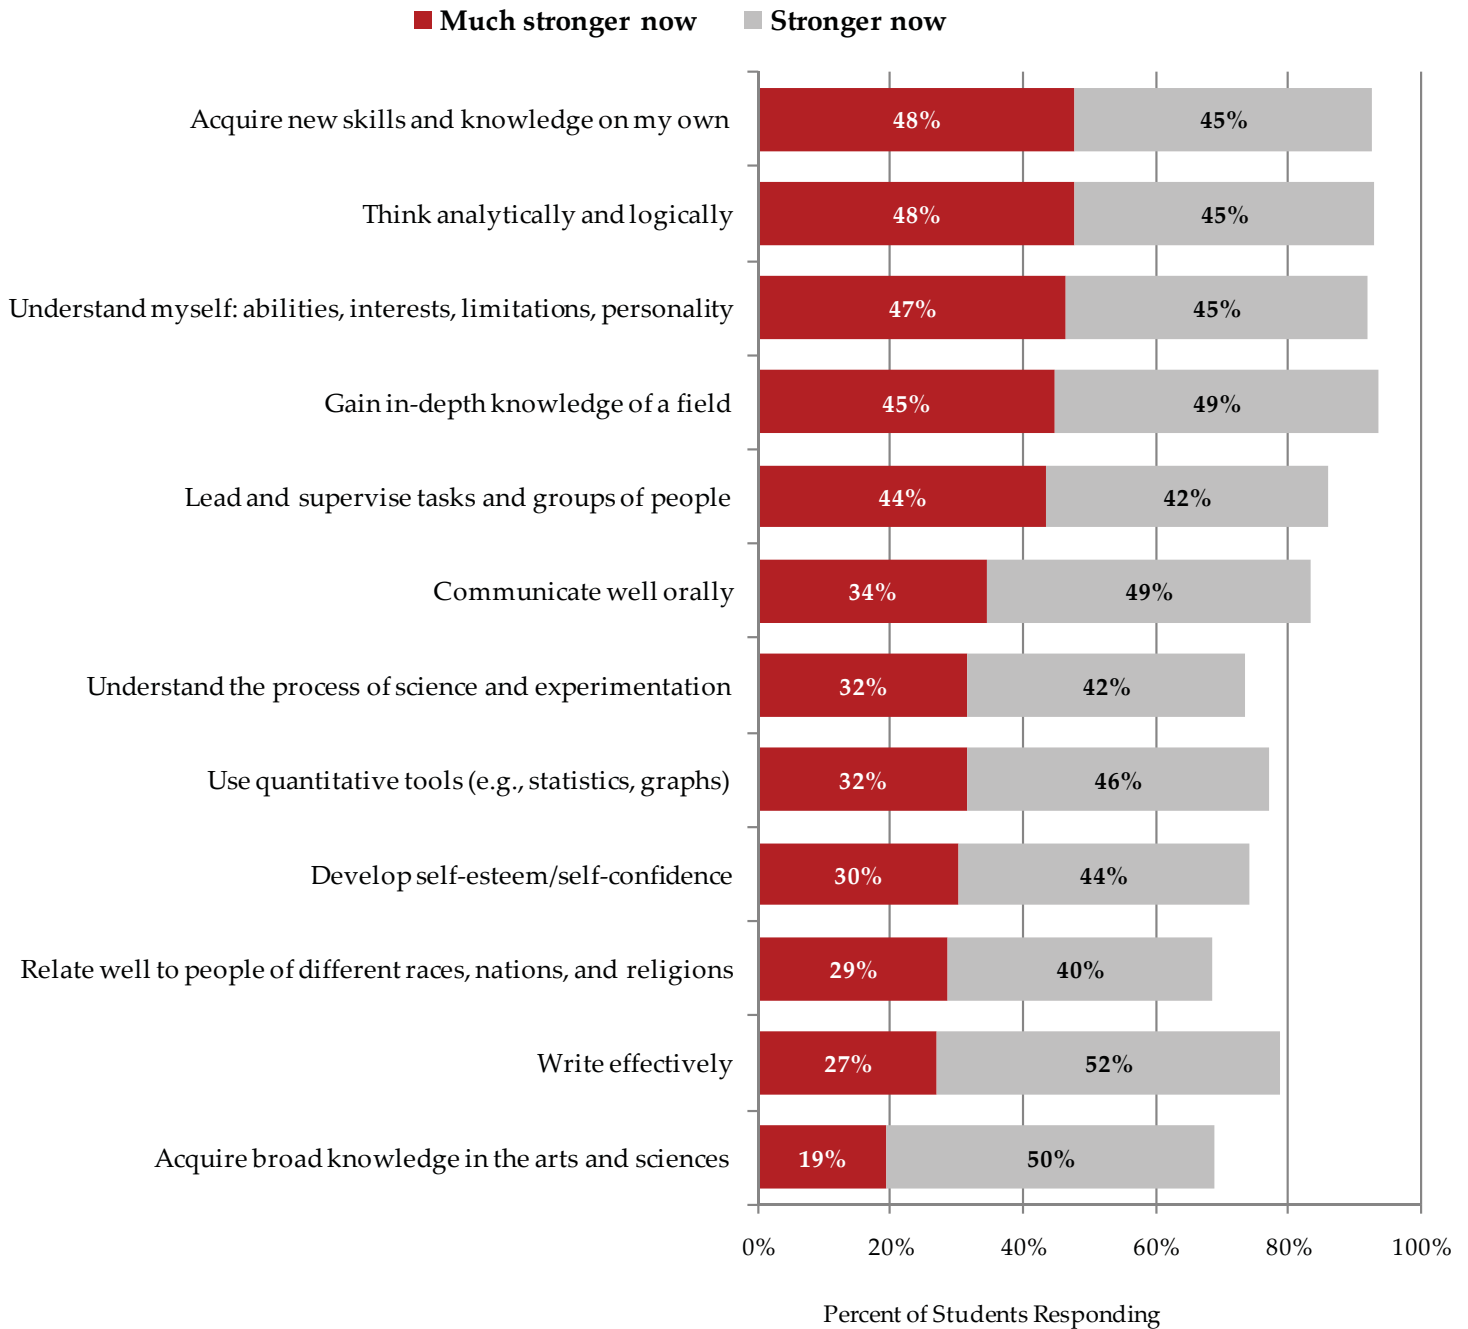

I have been able to find a balance between my academic work and extracurricular activities.

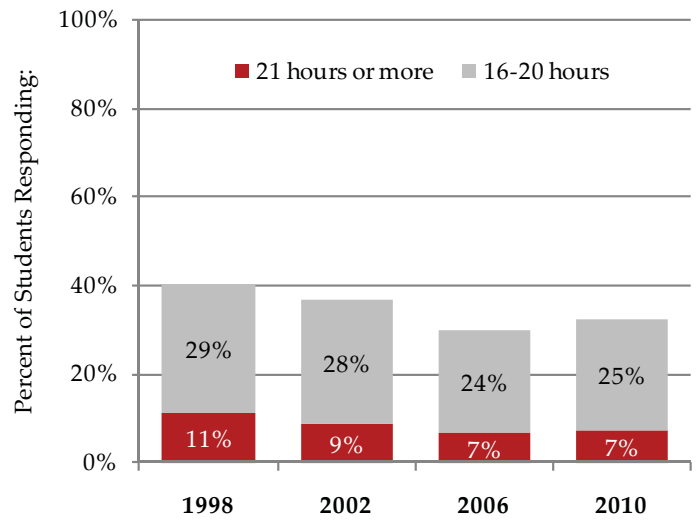

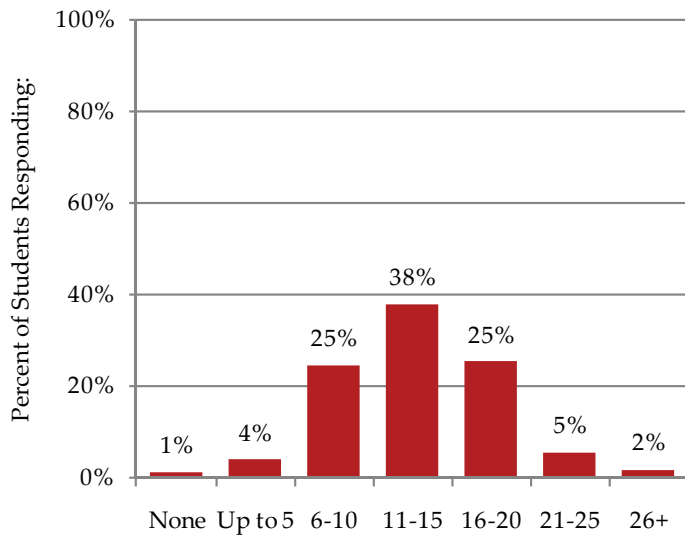

Learning Gains

Please indicate how your ability in each area has changed since you first entered college.

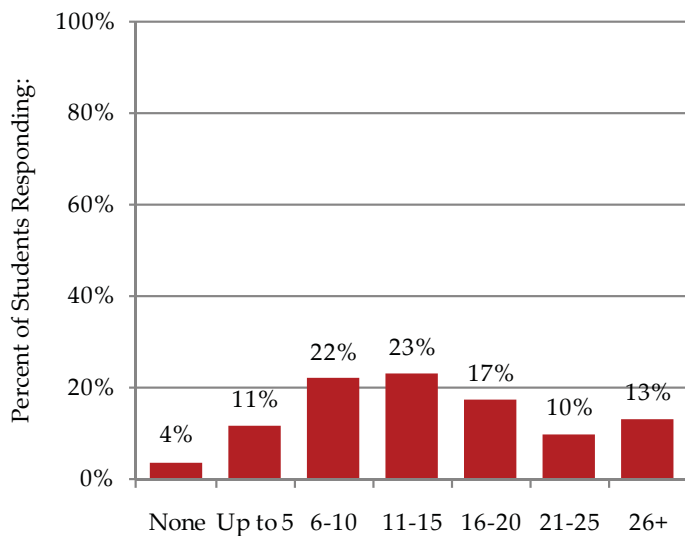

Academic Engagement

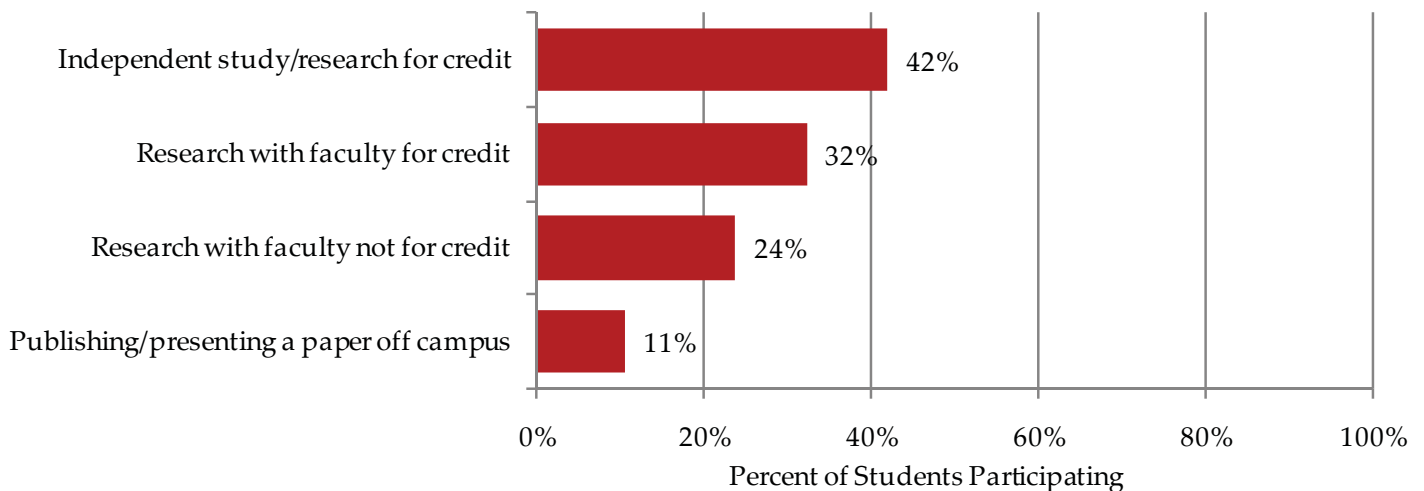

Hours spent per week attending scheduled classes or labs during the fall term.

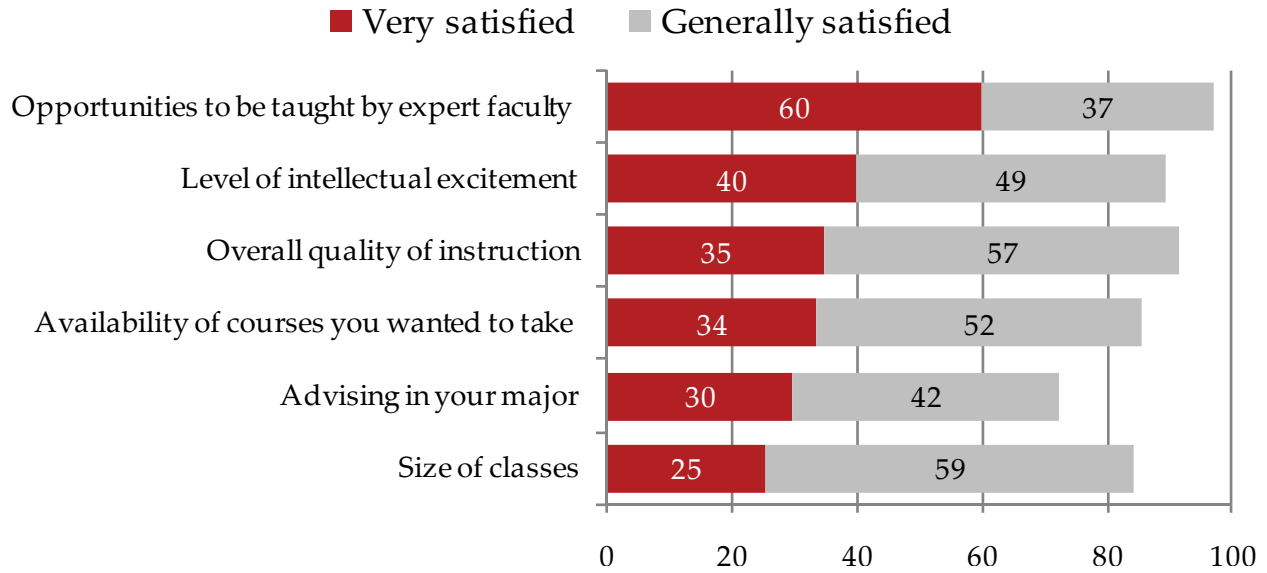

Hours spent per week studying or doing research outside of class in the fall term.

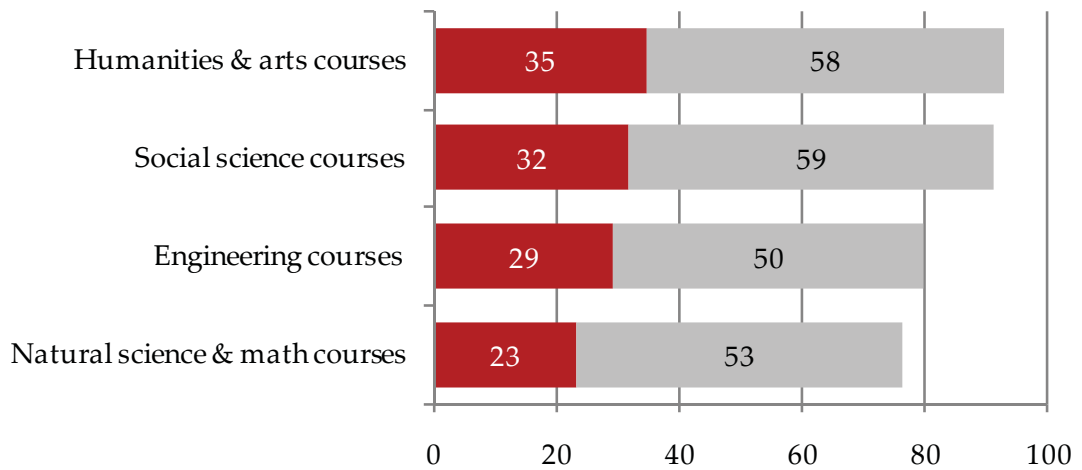

While an undergraduate, did you participate in any of the following?

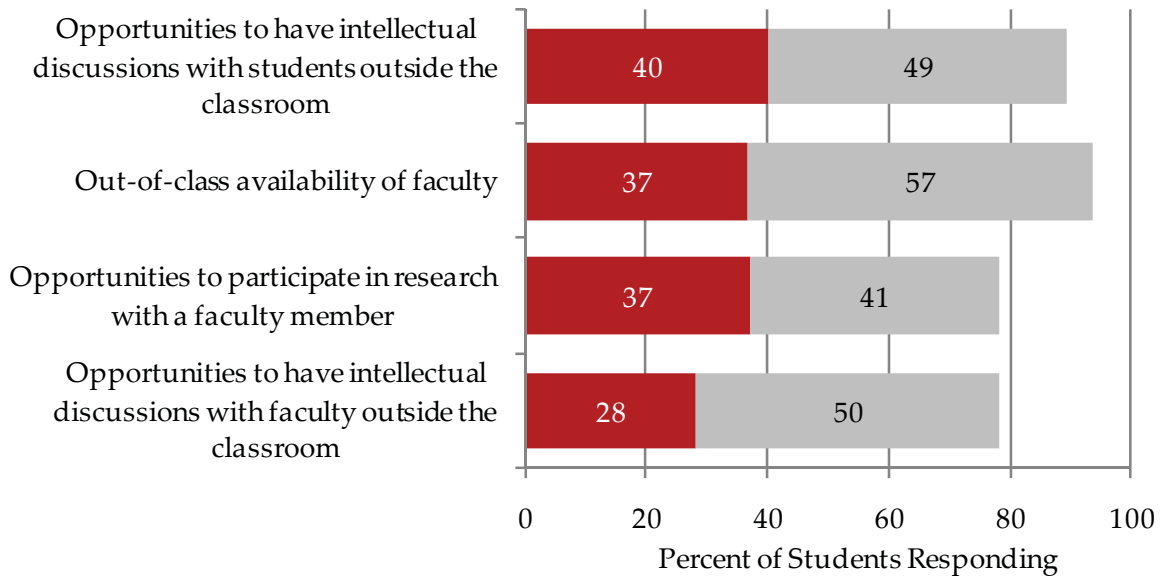

Satisfaction with aspects of the academic experience

Satisfaction with the quality of course instruction in:

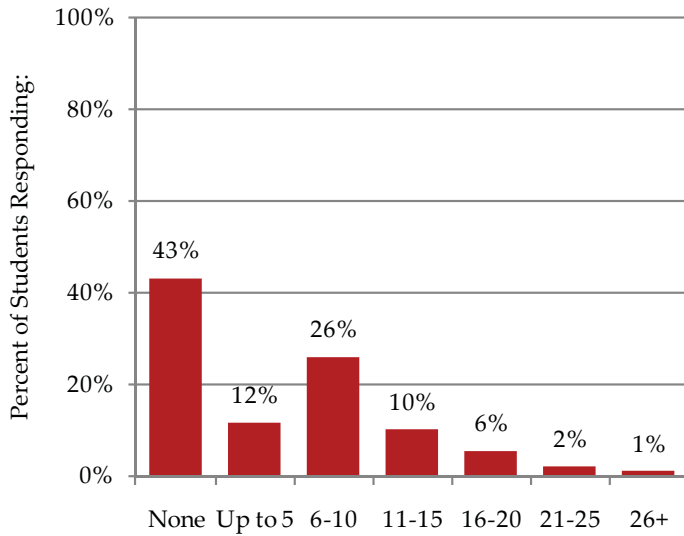

Satisfaction with the academic experiences outside the classroom:

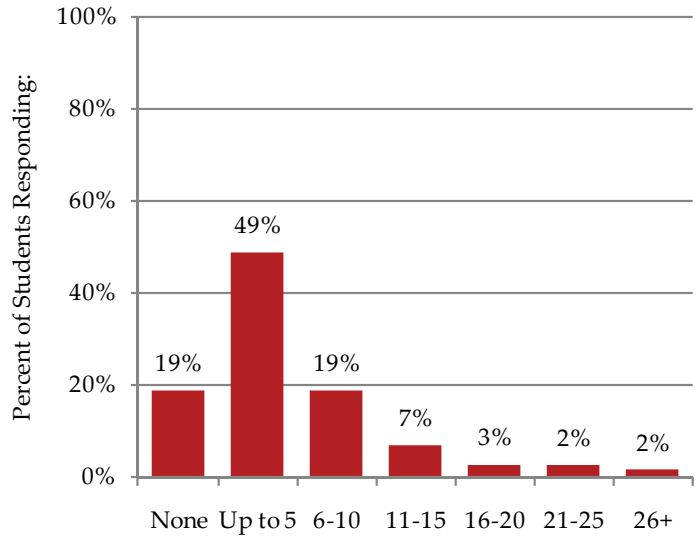

Time spent outside of academics

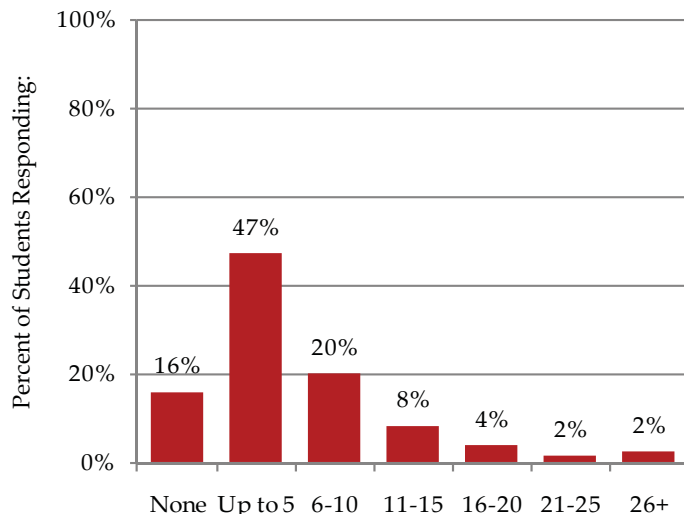

Hours spent working for pay during a typical week in the fall term of senior year

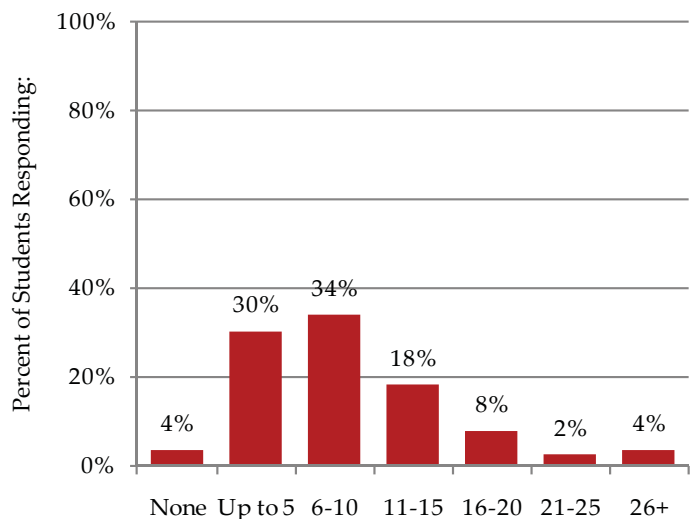

Hours spent in physical fitness during a typical week in the fall term of senior year

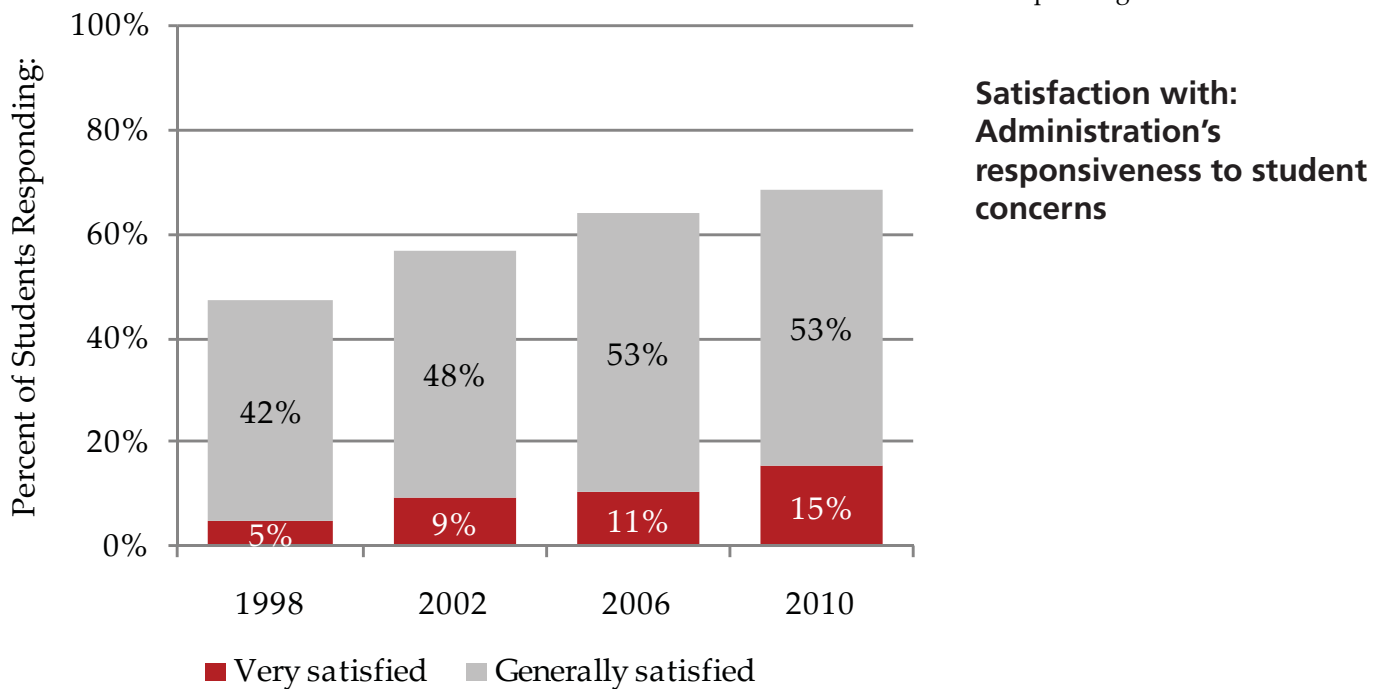

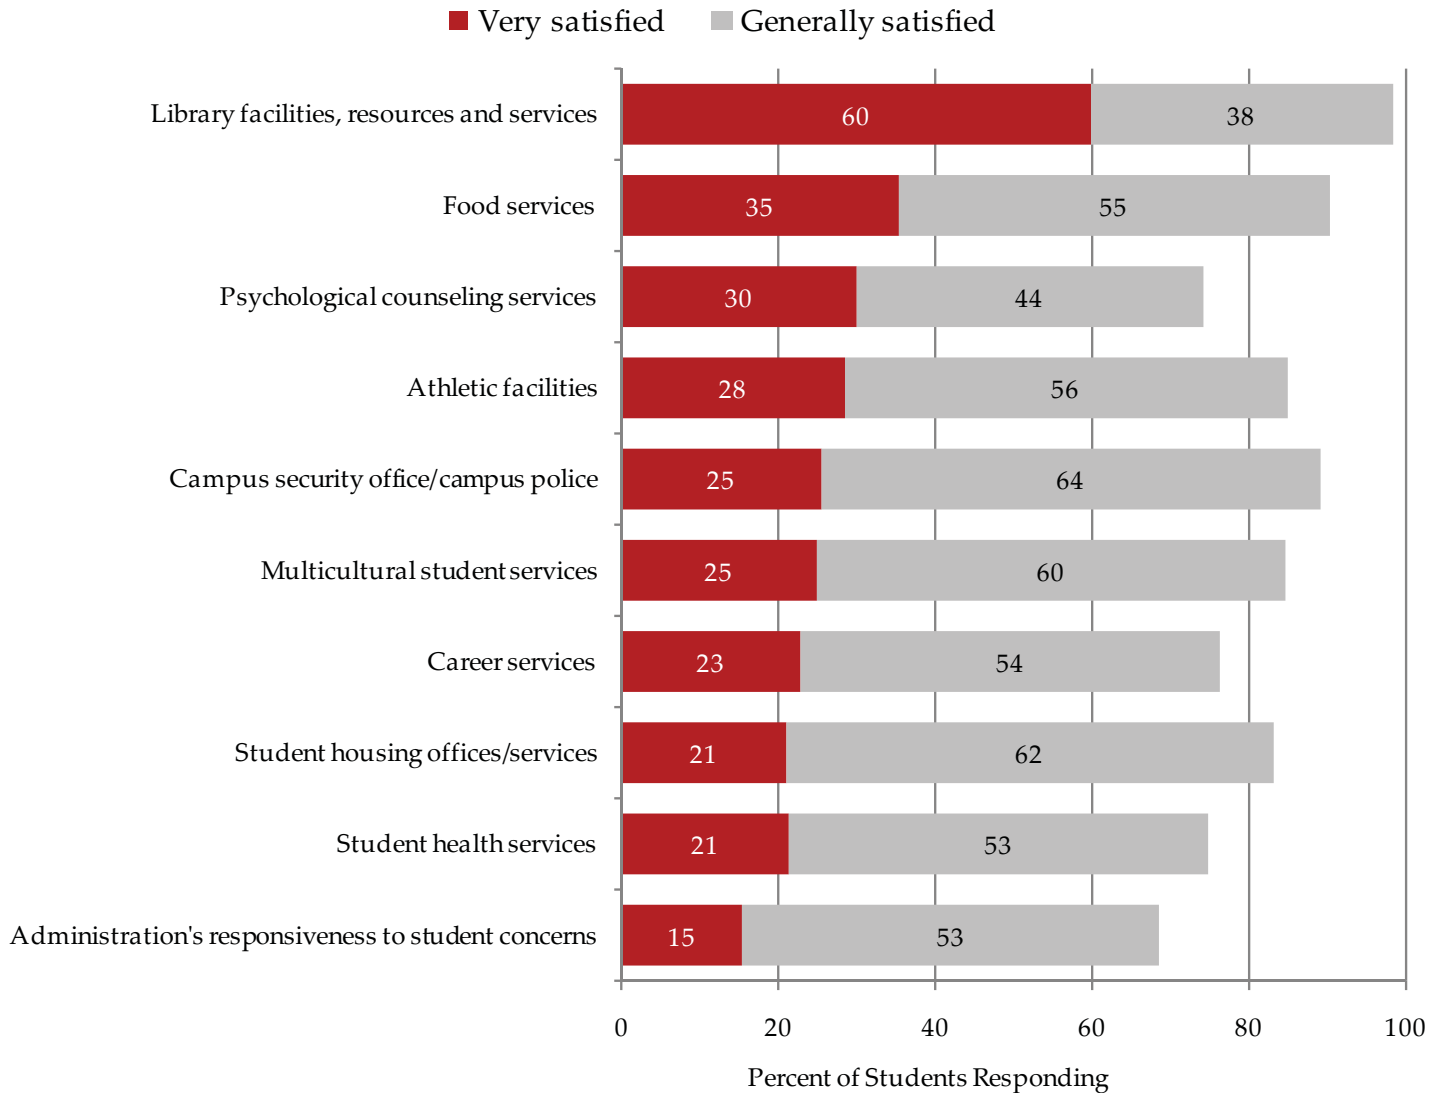

Hours spent participating in extracurricular activities during fall term of senior year

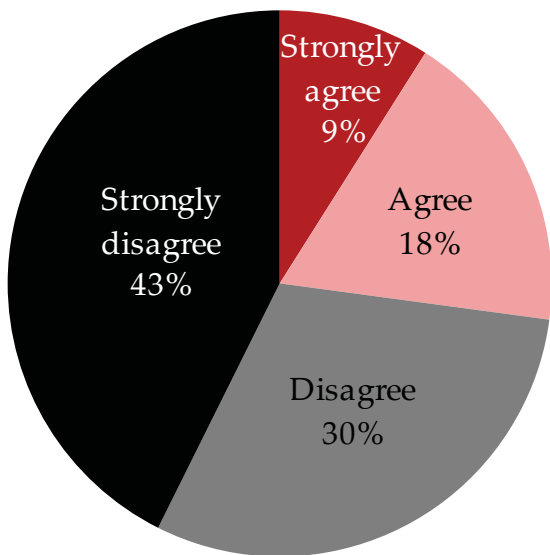

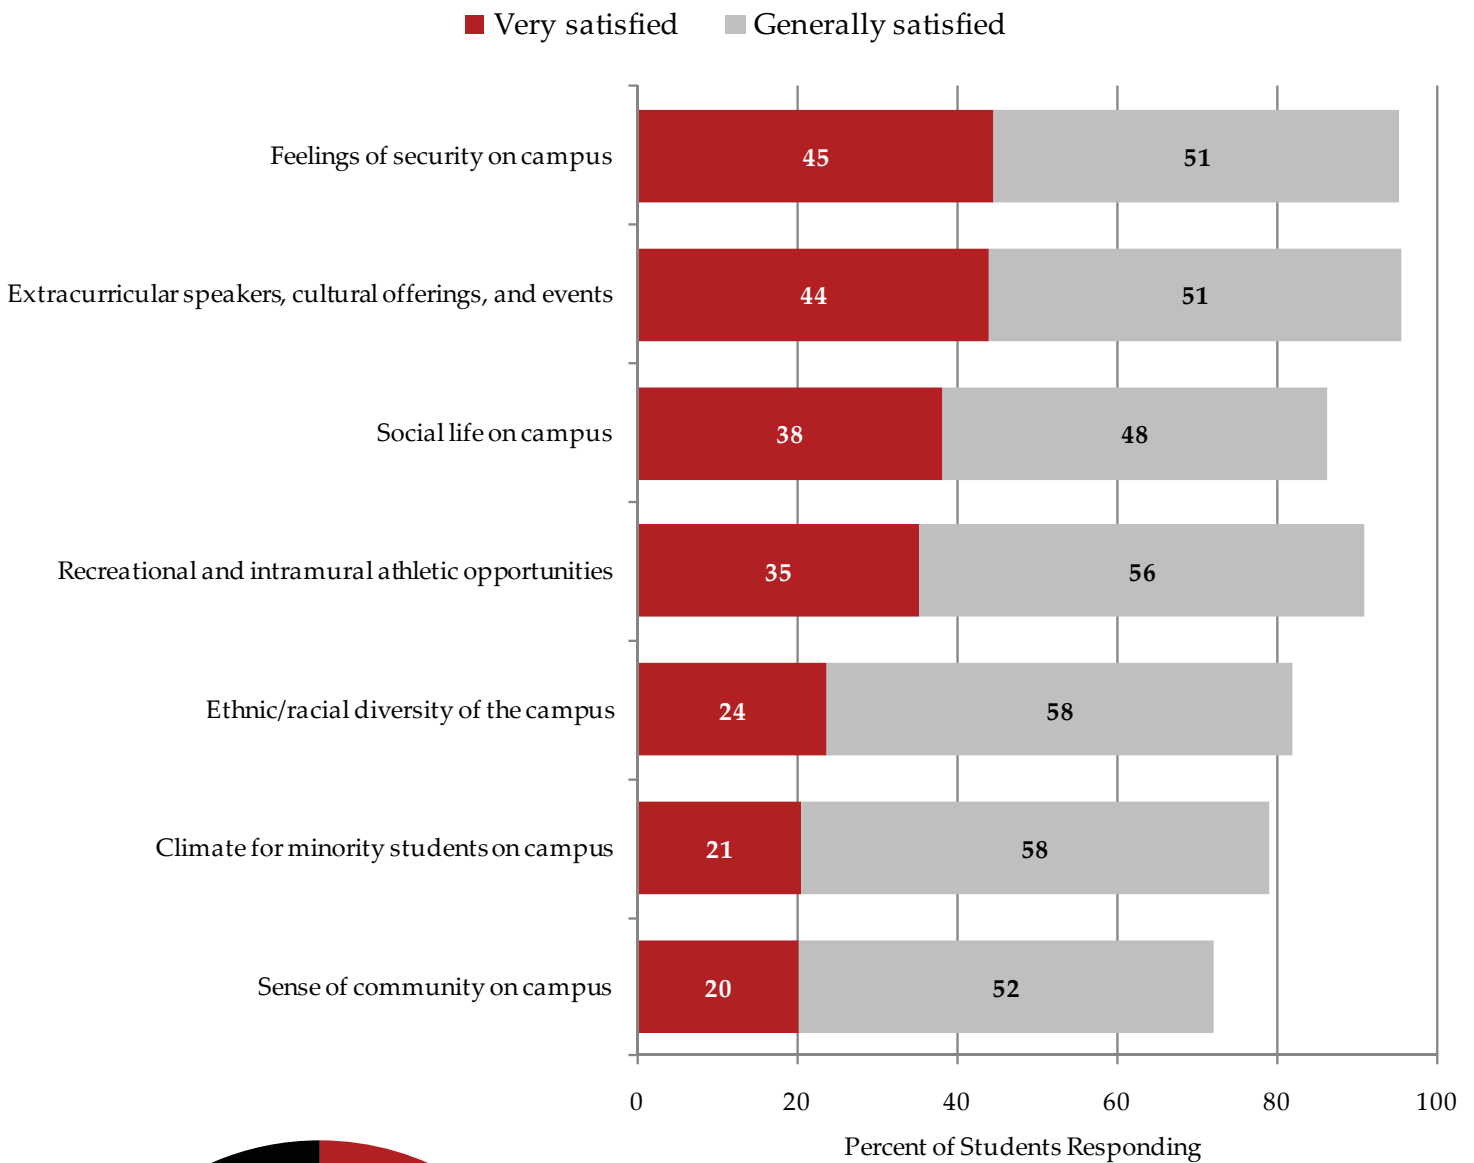

Hours spent socializing or partying with friends during fall term of senior year

Satisfaction with student services, facilities and resources

Satisfaction with student life

Extent of agreement with:
I will be seriously burdened by loan payments
when I graduate.